RESILIENCE

BURKE MUSEUM

ANNUAL REPORT

2020

DEAR FRIENDS,

Life goes on.

We often hear it said with a shrug of the shoulders and a tone of resignation. When I think of this past year—a jaw-dropping, roller coaster ride here at the Burke Museum—I say it with a smile and lightness in my voice.

From the highest of highs—opening our beautiful new museum in October 2019 after a decade of planning, to the lowest of lows—closing the museum just five months later and navigating the challenges presented by twin pandemics of COVID-19 and racial injustice, the Burke has drawn on the strengths of its community, visitors, staff, and volunteers to find new and meaningful ways to go on, to adapt, and to grow.

This resilience will serve the museum well as we tackle the complexities and uncertainties that lie ahead. We will continue to work together to acknowledge and address the Burke's colonial legacy and the harm it has caused. We will amplify Indigenous voices and knowledge. We will celebrate science and uphold the roadmap the past projects for the future. We will provide a safe and welcoming space for the community to learn, feel joy, and heal. And we will do all of this with deep gratitude, for each other and the generosity—in every sense—of supporters that makes it possible.

While our opening year certainly didn't go as planned, I have never been more proud to be part of this strong and passionate community. The unflagging support of our donors and members lifts us up on the most difficult days and ensures that open or closed, online or in person, life does go on and our mission never stops.

Onward,

Julie K. Stein
Executive Director

THANK YOU

WITH DEEP GRATITUDE, WE RECOGNIZE THE GENEROSITY OF OUR COMMITTED DONORS, WHO SUPPORTED THE BURKE IN THE PAST FISCAL YEAR.

BURKE MUSEUM FISCAL YEAR 2020

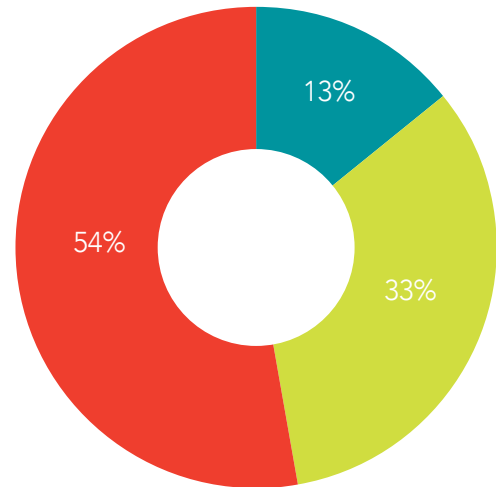

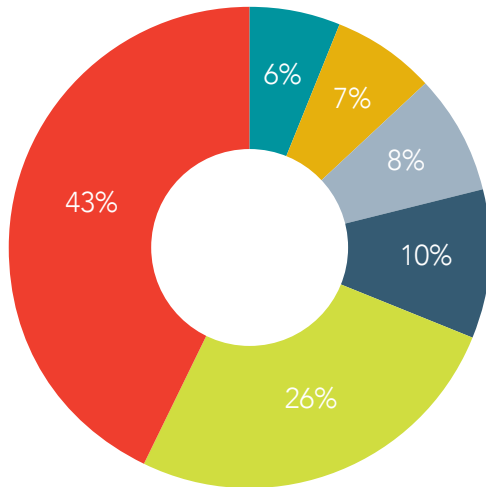

Fiscal year 2020 presented significant challenges for the Burke, as the museum was only open to the public for five months, from October 2019-March 2020. The museum's extended closure before opening and also due to COVID-19 resulted in a deficit, which was funded by unrestricted reserves and emergency grant funding.
